

THE GREAT SCOTTISH PUB PIE AWARDS 2019

NOMINATE YOUR PIE

Do you serve the best pub pie in Scotland? Pies and pubs are a match made in heaven and these new awards celebrate that. The awards are open to all pubs right across Scotland. To be in with a chance of winning the first-ever Great Scottish Pub Pie Award, tell us what makes your pie special: from a traditional recipe to the use of unusual ingredients; we want to hear all about it.

Five of the industry's finest have been selected to judge the awards: from top food and drink writers to pub and hospitality experts.

There will be two awards presented:

1. Best Pub Pie Award (voted by the judges)
2. People's Choice Award (voted by the pub goers on the day)

Judging criteria

Pies will be blind tasted and judged on taste, texture and the sourcing of the ingredients.

The People's Choice Award will be voted by consumers attending the final on the evening of Thursday 24th October.

Please note the shortlisted will be requested to supply mini pies to be tasted by judges and consumers on the night.

Prize

Along with winning the title of Great Scottish Pub Pie Award and People's Choice Award, our drink sponsor Belhaven will provide a mixed case of beer and the Bridge Inn will welcome the both winners for a three-course meal for two.

Application process

The awards are free to enter.

Fill out the form and send your entry along with an image of your pie to info@bridgeinn.com.

The deadline for entries is Friday 4th October at 5pm. The shortlist will be selected and announced on Monday 14th October and the lucky finalists will be advised by email.

If your pie makes the cut, you will be invited along to The Bridge Inn at Ratho for the final on the evening of Thursday 24th October 2019 to present your pie to the judging panel who will then pick the winner.

We will share all the requirements and timings for the evening, along with how many mini pies to supply, if you are shortlisted.

We will also require a high-resolution photograph of the pie in jpg format and a high-resolution jpg of your business logo. We'll be in touch to agree plans for a press announcement.

GOOD LUCK!
